Form E1-A for Boston College Co@urriculum

Department/Program Perspectives Program

1) Have formal learning outcomes for the department's Core courses been develoned are they? (What specific sets of skillend knowledge does the department expect students pleting its Core courses have acquired?)

As an interdisciplinary program providing coreditin philosophy, theology, arts, literature, social science and natural science, the learning outcomes of the Perspectives Program are developed by the departments in those core areas.

However, each of the four Perspectives courses addates ecore learning outcomes to the Perspectives mission of

- x providing a humanist context for professional and scientific education;
- x educating the whole person arfdrming students who are intelligent, responsible, reasonable, and attentive;
- x aiding students in the developing the skills of critical thinking and practical living; and
- x bringing faculty and students into conversation with the ancient, modern, and thinkers who have shaped our intellectual and spiritual heritage
- 2) Where are these learning outcomes publishe Be specific (Where are the department expected learning outcomes for its Core courses accessible the web in the catalogor in Residual Control (S) and Control (S) and Control (S) are the department of Perspectives, as well as native defound at the Perspectives Program
 - 3) Other than GPA, wat data/evidence outcomes for the Core requirement in the distinctive programs brochum